Pastor's Desk 20th June 2021 - Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time/B

It is a scary experience to be caught out in a small boat when, without warning, the sea suddenly changes from peaceful blue waters into exceptionally large waves. I remember being on a small boat while on a visit to Malta many years ago and with a sudden change in the weather our pleasant journey quickly became a very frightening ordeal. When we eventually reached the shore the sense of relief was very evident in the group.

We have all experienced fear, so we can appreciate how the apostles felt in the storm-tossed boat. They quickly shout at Jesus who is asleep in the boat, seemingly unaware of the danger and showing little concern for their plight.

This story of the storm at sea can connect with the trials and sufferings in our own lives. The experiences of illness, bereavement, disappointments, and misfortunes that come our way from time to time can severely test our faith. We can feel disappointed with God when setbacks bring sadness and anxiety into our homes. We might react angrily and question why God did not intervene to prevent this heartache. All these feelings are very understandable.

When we do not get an immediate answer to our prayers, we lose heart, panic and maybe even experience a sense of drowning beneath the waves of despair. Today's Gospel should give us hope because it shows that Jesus is always near, hidden in the very heart of suffering. We need to have faith that he alone can give us the courage and inner peace that will cast out our fears on the stormy voyage of life.

CARMELITE SUMMER SCHOOL

St John of the Cross is one of the greatest Christian mystics and a Doctor of the Church. His writings have proved invaluable for spiritual guidance but understanding them can present a challenge. This summer school aims to help participants read his writings as he intended. This will mean examining the criteria which he gives us for correctly interpreting his work. This summer school will greatly benefit you if you wish to read John with greater ease and relish, hearing John speak to you with his authentic voice. You will discover the criteria which John gives for correctly interpreting his work and draw insights from John's spiritual wisdom. Be nurtured by the word of God through lectio divina and join us this summer for this formative programme that promises to nurture the whole person – body, mind, soul and spirit. The Summer school will take place from 5th July – 9th July, 15:30-19:00

Presented by: Fr. Iain Matthew, OCD, Professor of Theology and Spirituality at the Pontifical Spirituality Institute, Teresianum, Rome and bestselling author of the spiritual classic The Impact of God (Hodder & Stoughton, 1995)

FAMILIES WALKING TOGETHER IN HOPE

The 'Walking Together in Hope' initiative will be launched on 25 August 2021 at Saint Mary's Pro-Cathedral. The Archdiocese of Dublin will provide some simple and achievable ideas for families and parishes starting in September 2021. We want to encourage families to take part in various initiatives to support faith lived in the home and celebrated together in our parishes. Our goal is to celebrate moments of hope and joy in family life, with resources suitable for learning, living and leading faith that are complementary to the way family is lived today.
